Wikipedia

Jemima Puddle-duck became quite desperate. She determined to make a nest right away from the farm. She set off on a fine spring afternoon along the cart-road that leads over the hill. She was wearing a shawl and a poke bonnet. When she reached the top of the hill, she saw a wood in the

The tale of Jemima Puddle Duck is another short little tale from Beatrix Potter. After reading her tales, I'm enjoying the hint of creativity and imagination that the author has shown in these tales. There are little twists and turns here and there and those keep you entirely engaged in the book. Kids will love these tales from Beatrix.
