who are the censors of foreign literature what motives influence them as they patrol the boundaries between cultures can cuts and changes sometimes save a book what difference does it make when the text is for children or designed for schools these and other questions are explored in this wide ranging international collection with copious examples from catullus to quixote petrarch to shakespeare wollstonecraft to waugh apuleius to mansfield how have migrating writers fared we see many genres from celtic hero tales to histories autobiographies polemics and even popular songs transformed on their travels by the censor s hand book jacket in the late 20th century there has been a rethinking of the whole concept of development including a growing awareness of its gender cultural and environmental dimensions and the impact of globalization the contributors to this volume seek to extend these debates to a more fundamental level tackling such issues as the crisis of development as an intellectual and practical project the need for a break with development as a eurocentric concept and the viability of alternative non western forms of development the contributors aim to transcend critiques of development which simply engage in a blanket dismissal of the whole enterprise and instead offer ways of re engaging with reality that despite globalization is still a dimension of the late 20th century
